

Contact Sheet

Whilst you are undergoing treatment, your first point of contact should be St James University Hospital. Please see below for guidance on who to contact and when.

Summary of problem.....	Who to contact.....
Radiotherapy department – for queries / advice about appointments, attending St James’s.	Main Reception: 0113 2068940
Feeling unwell, raised temperature, nausea, vomiting or diarrhoea	Oncology Nurses - Monday to Friday, 08:30- 18:00 hrs: 0113 2067587. Out of hours Nurse – after 18:00hrs, weekends and Bank Holidays: 0113 2433144. Be sure to ask for the Oncology Bleep Holder
Bexley Wing Hotel – accommodation at St James’s if struggling with daily travel for treatment.	Contact to check availability and book dates: 0113 2067687. Brochures are available on request.
Reduced dietary intake	St James University hospital dietitian: 0113 2068133
Feeding tube issues	Nutricia nurse: 03452501068 or your district nurse.
Increased pain on swallowing, requiring increase pain management/medication.	Speak to your radiographer, nurse or Consultant at St James’s.
Appointment/transport issues	St James’s radiotherapy reception: 0113 2068940
Repeat prescriptions after treatment	Please contact your GP Surgery

If your query is regarding an appointment at Huddersfield, please speak to our cancer care coordinator on 01484 343428. You will be offered an appointment with the local team once you have finished your treatment, for weekly support with your rehabilitation.

Please contact the local Head and Neck team if you are unable to find the necessary assistance on the above numbers.